PROCEEDINGS: _____ In Chambers _____ In Court _____ Telephonic

On December 17, 2009, the Court issued an Order to Show Cause why Defendant should not be sanctioned for not sending the appropriate client representative to the mandatory settlement conference held on that date [doc. no. 85]. On December 31, 2009, Career Systems Development Corporation filed Defendant's Opposition to the Order to Show Cause Issued on December 21, 2009, accompanied by the Declaration of Greg Burden in Opposition to the Order to Show Cause [doc. no. 86]. Plaintiff subsequently filed her Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Reply to Defendant's Opposition and the Declaration of H. Paul Kondrick in Reply to Defendant's Opposition [doc. no. 88].

The Court has considered the submissions of the parties and has been advised of the relationship between the Defendant and Global Human Resources Outsourcing, a division of Global, a 1st Flagship Company. Under the circumstances, the Court finds that the Defendant's reliance on Jeff Stinson, the President of Global Human Resources Outstanding, to attend the December 17th mandatory settlement conference does not warrant the imposition of sanctions. Nevertheless, and in light of the pending trial, scheduled for February 24, 2010, the Court concludes that a further settlement conference should be held.

Accordingly, a second mandatory settlement conference will be held on February 10, 2010, at 10:00 a.m. Plaintiff Darlene Hoyt, her counsel, Greg Burden, President and CEO of Career Systems Development Corporation, and Defendant's trial counsel are ordered to appear. Furthermore, each party may also bring to the conference any other individual whose input it believes is useful in arriving at a settlement.
